MRS. JAMES ANTHONY LUCADO
the former Miss Lynn Sharon Martin

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Lynn Sharon Martin to Mr. James Anthony Lucado took place Saturday evening, February 24, 1973 at 7:30 in Mount Comfort United Methodist Church in Appomattox.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rawlings Clayton Martin and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brandford Lucado, all of Appomattox.

The Rev. Leon Lawrence, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Thomas E. Jackson, pastor of United Methodist Church in Urbanna, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned of candlelight satin and re-embroidered alencon lace. The bodice was finished with a high Victorian neckline and long trumpet sleeves. Motifs of the lace, which was etched with seed pearls, were appliqued on the bodice and sleeves and encircled the neckline. The floor length skirt ended in a cathedral train. Bands of lace cascade down the front of the skirt and motifs of the lace were appliqued on the train. Her veil was fingertip length mantilla of candlelight Brussels lace.

Miss Alice Yvonne Martin of Appomattox was her sister's maid of honor and her gown was fashioned of emerald green taffeta, with a bodice of tartan plaid taffeta in shades of green, red and white. The bodice was finished with a Peter Pan collar and with a ruffle down the front, over which she wore a short cape of emerald green taffeta which matched the floor length skirt.

Bridesmaids were Miss Denice Clapp of Madison Heights and Miss Paula Kristin Martin of Richmond, both cousins of the bride; Mrs. Michael Lucado of Lynchburg, sister in law of the bridegroom; Mrs. Allen Booth of Spout Spring and Miss Brenda Marsh of Appomattox, cousins of the bridegroom; and Miss Pat O'Brien of Richmond.

The bridesmaids dresses were of emerald green taffeta. The empire bodice was finished with a high neckline and long Bishop sleeves and self ruffle cascades over the shoulders and around the front and back of the bodice, with full, floor length skirts.

The bride's mother chose a floor length pink gown and wore an orchid corsage that blended with her gown.

The groom's mother wore a floor length gown of pale green and her corsage was a pale yellow orchid.

Mr. Lucado was his son's best man and ushers were Michael Lucado of Lynchburg, brother of the groom; Gregg Martin, brother of the bride; Warren Hillsman, cousin of the groom; Robert Keaton and Donnie Ferguson, all of Appomattox.

The Rev. Leon Lawrence, pastor of the church, provided a program of wedding music, singing "Because", "O Promise Me" and the "Wedding Prayer." Mrs. Wallace Moore was organist.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin entertained with a reception in the church social hall immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Tylon Bollinger and Mrs. Leonard Anderson were in charge of arrangements and were assisted by Mrs. Mason Banton, Mrs. C. H. Martin, Mrs. Lillian Parker, Mrs. Ruth Moore and Mrs. John Franklin, Jr. Mrs. Maynard Bean of Richmond registered the guests.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and attended Radford College and Central Virginia Community College.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of Appomattox High School and is a graduate of Central Virginia Community College.

For their southern wedding trip, the bride wore a blue pantsuit with a yellow corsage.

The couple will make their home in Gladstone.

Mr. and Mrs. John Godsey of Lynchburg and Mrs. Nettie McCormick of Appomattox visited their son and grandson in Mississippi and have returned home. They had a wonderful time,
